

February 10, 2025 | ECG Announcements

EXIT CONSULTING GROUP WELCOMES EVAN KINSELLA AS MANAGING DIRECTOR

San Diego, CA – February 10, 2025 Exit Consulting Group (ECG) is pleased to announce the addition of Evan Kinsella as Managing Director. With a proven track record in business strategy, operational excellence, and executive leadership, Evan will be key in guiding business owners through transitions, growth, and long-term success.

Evan began his career in the Northeast, applying his engineering expertise to enhance facilities management, cost control, and infrastructure improvements in the healthcare industry. After earning his MBA from the Anderson School at UCLA, he transitioned into strategic consulting at Deloitte, where he developed deep expertise in business growth, operational strategy, and executive leadership. His experience led him to C-suite roles in manufacturing and distribution, where he successfully built high-performing teams and set strategic goals to drive sustained success.

At ECG, Evan will focus on empowering business owners by aligning leadership, teams, and strategy to achieve personal and professional goals. His passion for growth and commitment to operational excellence make him a valuable addition to the team.

“We are thrilled to welcome Evan to ECG,” said Andrea Steinbrenner, CEO & Partner at Exit Consulting Group. “His experience in executive leadership and strategic consulting perfectly aligns with our mission to guide business owners through every stage of their journey. We’re excited for the impact he will have on our clients and our team.”

About Exit Consulting Group

Exit Consulting Group, Inc.® (ECG) is a premier professional services firm specializing in business transitions and exit strategies. Our team of experts brings a unique blend of real-world experience and professional expertise to every client engagement. Having personally navigated the challenges of starting, growing, managing, and selling businesses, our consultants offer invaluable insights that go beyond theoretical knowledge.

For more information, please contact:

Exit Consulting Group

info@exitconsultinggroup.com

2365 Northside Dr. Suite #550
San Diego, CA 92108

(619) 202-6888

www.exitconsultinggroup.com